

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What areas does After3 service?

- We service the Upper West Side, Upper East Side, TriBeCa/Battery Park, and areas of Brooklyn right off the Brooklyn Bridge (such as Brooklyn Heights, Park Slope, Boerum Hill, Fort Greene, and Prospect Heights).

2. How much is the cost of the bus?

- The cost is $315 per day of use, per semester. (ex: Registering for Mondays and Wednesdays will be a $630 charge for the entire semester.)

3. How do I pay for the bus?

- Your credit card will be charged automatically for 1/2 of your bus fee at the time of registration, and 1/2 on the 15th of April.

4. What time will the bus get to each stop?

- We estimate times based on routes and the stops. We send all parents a copy of the bus routes with estimated time. Times are based on buses leaving the school at 5pm.

5. How are the bus routes created?

- We create bus routes based on registration. We like to make stops that are convenient for all parents. However, if there are not sufficient students registered for a bus we may have to combine bus routes.

6. Can I choose to have two different bus stops during the week?

- We do not allow two different stops per student to avoid any confusion or mistakes.

7. If I paid for the private bus during the day will that count for the After3 bus?

- No, After3 bus is a private bus for after school students.

8. If my child is in another after school program can he/she ride the bus?

- Yes, please email After3bus@gmail.com for all inquiries.

9. Are students escorted to the bus?

- Yes, After3 staff/matrons pick up all bus students directly from their classes and escort them down to the bus area, where they will be lined up for their buses according to routes.

10. What time does the After3 bus leave NEST+m?

- The bus leaves the school between 4:50 pm to 5pm.

11. Does the bus company provide matrons?

- No, After3 provides matrons for the Upper West, Upper East, and Brooklyn bus.

12. Can the bus be canceled?

- Yes, the bus can be canceled before the close of online registration (March 17th, 2022). After the deadline please note: once registered the commitment is for the semester no refunds will be issued if you wish to cancel.
