Insurance: Dear Parent /Legal Guardian: The University provides accident and illness medical insurance designed to respond on a "primary" basis with no deductible, as part of the program at no additional charge. This coverage provides up to $5,000 in benefits in the event a camper sustains an injury requiring treatment or hospitalization, up to $500 in dental benefits, and up to $1000 in benefits for illness, after which the family's medical insurance must be used. The insurance provided will cover only an injury or illness resulting from activity which occurred while the camper is participating in Sport Camps activities at Penn State. Parents/Legal Guardians will be responsible for medical bills for a camper with a pre-existing medical condition or illness.

Refunds: All individual cancellations must be received in writing by mail, e-mail, or fax to the Penn State Sport Camps Office. Cancellations will not be accepted by phone. For those cancellations received twenty (20) or more days prior to the first day of camp, a $30 fee will be deducted. If the cancellation is received nineteen (19) days or less before the start of camp, there will be a $85 fee. Any refund request not submitted to the Penn State Sport Camps office by 5:00 p.m. two business days from the first day of camp will not receive a refund.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

The Pennsylvania State University is committed to providing a safe environment for all youth participating in activities offered through the University.

All Penn State youth programs have policies in place to ensure the safety of youth participating in our programs and to ensure safety is not compromised. All camp staff are trained in emergency protocols and all relevant internal, external and parental reporting requirements.

Parents are encouraged to notify the Camp Director immediately if they, or their child, are experiencing problems, difficulties or concerns with the camp, other youth in the camp and/or Camp staff. You may also contact Bill Mincer, Director of Penn State Sport Camps at whm12@psu.edu / 814-863-4471; Sandy Weaver, Youth Programs Compliance Specialist at stw126@psu.edu / 814.865.8785 or call the University's Ethics Hotline at 1.800.560.1637.

Have a great camp!
